

Canadian Evangelical Theological Association Annual Meeting
Congress of Humanities and Social Sciences, Victoria, BC
June 2, 2013

David Strong Building, Room C124 (University of Victoria)

Welcome and Worship (8:30-9:00 am)

Paper Presentation Session #1 (9:00-11:30 am)

- On the Conversion of the Wilberforces
Matthew J. Thomas, Regent College
- Wisdom at the Edge: Genesis 22 as Test of Discernment
Nicholas Ansell, Institute for Christian Studies
- Did I Say “You Are Gods”? John 10:34-36’s Midrashic Use of Embedded Scripture
David Sigrist, Trinity Western University
- Which Kind of Society is “Biblical”? Reflections on a Gradualist God
Iain Provan, Regent College
- The Accidental Arrogance of the Biblical Scholar: An Implication of Gadamer’s Philosophical Hermeneutics for Biblical Interpretation
Rachel Toombs, Regent College

CETA 2013 Business Meeting (11:30 am-12:00 noon)

Lunch (12:00-1:30 pm)

Paper Presentation Session #2 (1:30-4:00 pm)

- The Future of Theological Education in Canada: Giving Trends among Evangelical Churches
Mike Tapper, St. Paul University
- Recovering the Practice of Place: A Theology of Place
Len Hjalmarson, Kelowna, BC
- Wilderness and the Secular Age
Emma Pavey, Vancouver School of Theology
- The Ecstasy of Contemplation: Richard of St. Victor on the Special Knowledge of Love
Eva Braunstein, Regent College
- Worship at the Edges: Emerging Evangelicals and Third Spaces
Frank Emanuel, St. Paul University